Welcome!

On behalf of the IIBA Board of Trustees (BoT), I extend our heartfelt gratitude for your continued support by paying the 2025 membership dues. Your commitment to our community is invaluable, and I am pleased to confirm that your payment has been processed. You should have received the corresponding receipt, either directly or through your local society.

As we look forward to 2025, I invite you to explore the many ways you can engage with the IIBA beyond our emails and events. Your involvement can take many forms, such as:

|---|---|---|---|
| Joining a committee | Contributing to our knowledge library | Writing for our Clinical Journal | Sharing your story |
| Bring your expertise and enthusiasm to one of our committees and help shape the future of bioenergetic analysis. | Share your insights by submitting articles and enriching our collective resources. | Provide valuable perspectives to our community by sharing your experiences and research. | Inspire others by stepping up to share your journey and accomplishments. |

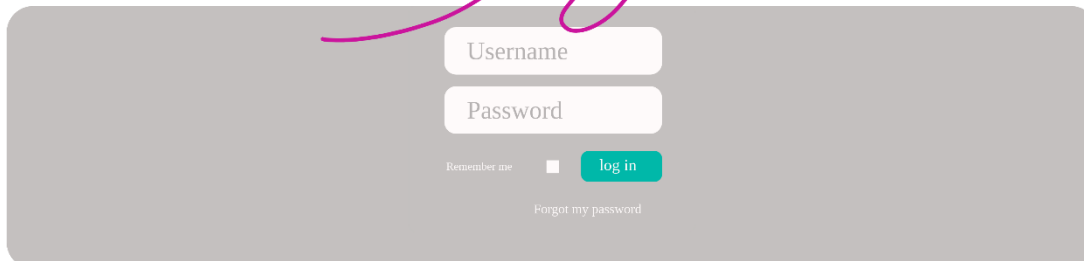

We believe that your active participation can significantly enhance our collective learning and growth. Should you have any inquiries or wish to learn more about how you can get involved, please do not hesitate to contact us. IIBA's president, Léia Cardenuto, the BoT, and I are always here to assist you and would be delighted to connect via email or a call.

Thank you for being a vital part of our community for another year. I eagerly anticipate connecting with you online or in person in the coming year!

Warm regards,

Nina Schubert | IIBA Back-Office

ABOUT US

The Institute for Bioenergetic Analysis (IBA) was founded in 1956, in New York City, USA, by Alexander Lowen and two other students of Reich, John Pierrakos and William Walling.

In 1976, facing the international expansion of Bioenergetic Analysis and a growing demand in psychotherapist's trainings, Alexander Lowen turned the IBA into the International Institute for Bioenergetic Analysis (IIBA).

Since 1996, we are a global professional non-profit organization dedicated to the support and encouragement of our members in their work as Bioenergetic Therapists.

Since 2011, the IIBA has been registered in the Register of Associations of the Government of Catalonia (Spain).

Learn about the history of Bioenergetic Analysis ...

STRATEGY, VISION & MISSION

Strategy

The International Institute for Bioenergetic Analysis (IIBA) is a non-profit organization dedicated to the support and encouragement of its members in their work as Bioenergetic Therapists.

Through that work Bioenergetic Analysis develops and grows.

Vision

The support the IIBA provides its members enables them to develop their capacities as Bioenergetic Therapists fully with the aim of understanding the causes of, and the alleviation of human suffering.

The success of this mission depends on our ability to be grounded in reality, to encourage and nurture open discussion and communication, and to examine and evaluate our beliefs and their manifestation in how we conduct ourselves as people, as therapists, and as members of the organization.

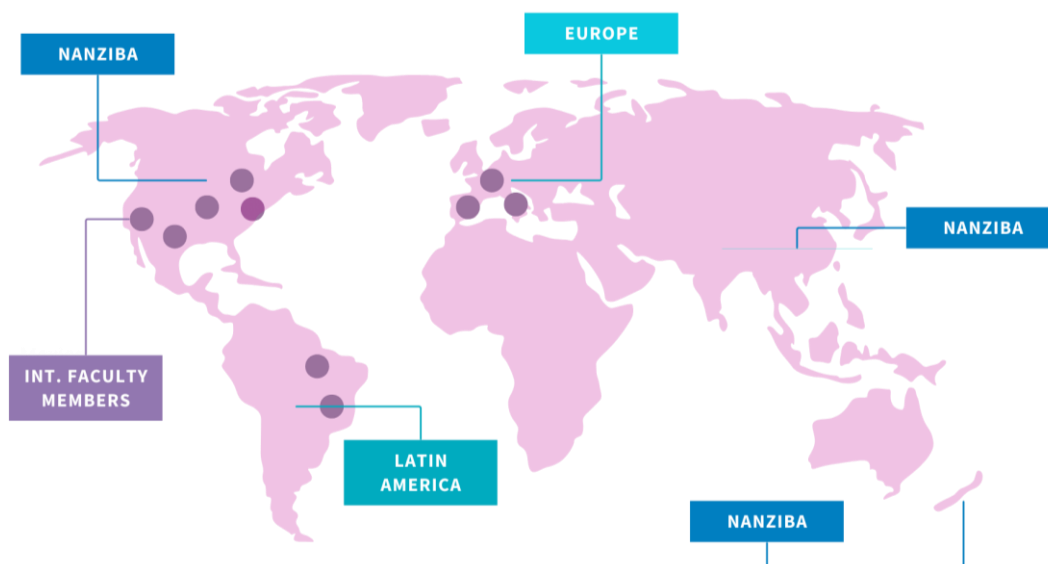

Mission

The mission of the IIBA is to plan and execute activities which support and encourage the development of its members as Bioenergetic Therapists, and the development and growth of Bioenergetic Analysis.

International Faculty

To maintain the Faculty's crucial role as the IIBA transitioned to a membership-driven organization, the Union of International Faculty Members has 'region' status, placing it on equal footing with local geographic regions (Europe, Nanziba and Latin America).

Today, the International Faculty - comprising 40 dedicated and highly skilled educators - plays a central role in advancing the IIBA's mission by developing new theories and methods in Bioenergetic Analysis.

GET INVOLVED!

Leadership is a responsibility we all share.

It's our turn to take the wheel and ensure the well-being of the IIBA. To drive us forward, we need everyone to step up and lead.

The IIBA thrives when each of us takes ownership and responsibility for the power we hold as members.

We invite you to become a candidate for leadership and actively participate in shaping our future.

There are numerous ways to contribute to IIBA activities, with volunteer opportunities that match a wide range of interests, skills, and goals.

Find the perfect opportunity for you and join us in making a difference. Together, we can create a vibrant and successful IIBA community.

Your engagement matters.

Let's lead the way!

Our committees

Executive Committee (EC) & Board of Trustees (BoT)

The EC is to execute the policies of the IIBA. The EC manages the current business of the organization in accordance with the Mission Statement and Goals of the organization as defined by the BoT. These include, among other things, making decisions on:

- current business.
- appointing Chairs of Committees and Working Groups and appointing coordinators for specific tasks.
- keeping in contact with the IIBA International Faculty and overseeing teaching activities.
- presenting a yearly budget and yearly report on the financial situation of the IIBA to the membership.
- overseeing the organization of the International Conferences.
- officially representing the IIBA outside the organization.

The BoT is dedicated to fostering a model of organizational self-governance. The IIBA provides a supportive environment where members can cultivate a strong connection to a global bioenergetic center, representing the interests of members worldwide, while also engaging in local autonomous organizations. This dual commitment ensures that our community remains both united in purpose and diverse in its local expressions.

This is what members have asked for, and the BoT has tried to model this way of relating to each other organizationally, with respect for the affiliated societies and federations, with an awareness of the interests of those members who have no local or regional affiliation, and with a guiding commitment to the interests and welfare of all the members.

This part of the organizational mission is advanced by the IIBA acting to coordinate the activities of bioenergetic groups worldwide.

This includes developing means of communication between affiliated societies, regional groups, and between members that enhance information and knowledge sharing, and thereby enhance members' competence.

Teaching Committee

The Teaching Committee (TC) oversees issues related to teaching and training programs.

They are responsible to recommend policy and procedure to the BoT.

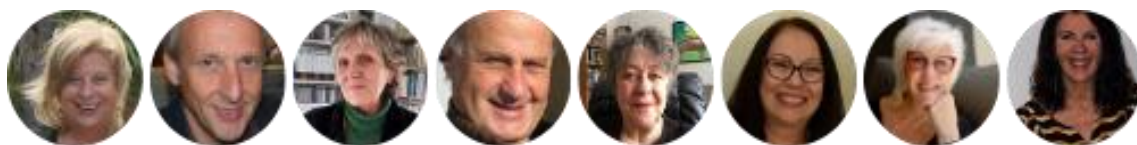

The Teaching Committee is currently reviewing our guidelines for becoming a Certified Bioenergetic Therapist, Supervisor, and Local Faculty Member.

The TC also handles the application and nomination for Mature Society status and is the organizer of our webinar series.

Faculty Committee

The Faculty Committee fosters a sense of community amongst International Faculty Members and they lend support to committees established by the International Faculty and for the tasks that the International Faculty has taken on.

They represent and speak on behalf of the International Faculty to other IIBA committees.

And last but not least, the Faculty Committee supports the teaching function in the IIBA and plan all International Faculty meetings on the IIBA level.

The Faculty Committee services as hub for an efficient and effective communication between International Faculty Members.

Selection Committee & PDW Committee

The Selection & PDW Committee is responsible for the handling of International Faculty applications, process of evaluation, and nomination.

They make recommendations to the EC after completing a review of all materials received for an applicant. (The final decision will be approved by the EC, on behalf of the BoT.)

Members of the Selection Committee & PDW Committee 2024

Alex Munroe | Fina Pla i Vila | Ana Silvia Paula

(New committee members will be joining over the coming weeks and months. The new committee will be formally established in the last quarter of 2024.)

PDW Committee

The PDW Committee plans the biennial Professional Development workshop (PDW) and decides on the venue, International Faculty Trainers, program and other logistics.

They follow the policies and procedures of “Organizing a PDW Guidelines”.

They also suggest changes to the policies and procedures that enable the SC-PDW Committee to carry out the wishes of the International Faculty. (Discussed and approved or modified at an International Faculty meeting.)

Members of the PDW Committee 2024

Alex Munroe (Chair) | Dariusz Zawrzykraj | Miriam Bergamini Mantau

(The PDW Committee 2024 has completed its term. We are now preparing to form the PDW Committee 2026, which will be responsible for organizing the PDW 2026 in Latin America.)

The PDW rotates continents in the same manner as the International IIBA Conference. The PDW is held on the years opposite the International IIBA Conference.

Curriculum Working Group

The Curriculum Working Group is related to the Teaching Committee and the Faculty Committee.

It is in charge of initiating the Curriculum revision by presenting a first draft to the International Faculty and carrying out the integration of International Faculty input.

(After this phase, the group works within the Teaching Committee to present a version including the membership input to the BoT.)

Humanitarian Committee

The purpose of the Humanitarian Committee is to support vulnerable people, refugees, homeless people, victims of violence and natural disasters to help them to embrace life and to show them the path to self-acceptance and connection between body and mind by offering brief sessions that create sense of belonging and grounding.

The goal of the Humanitarian Committee will focus on offering emotional support (not psychotherapy sessions).

The Humanitarian Committee will work on a concept of emotional support for refugees based during the next couple of months. The idea is to create a course working out this subject under the umbrella of Bioenergetic Analysis. This course will be available to all affiliated societies and/or active members and trainees of the IIBA.

Conference Committees

Our IIBA International Conferences are held in rotating continents (Europe, North America & Latin America) on a biennial basis.

The scope of our IIBA International Conferences focuses on Bioenergetic Analysis: The conferences help set the directions for the future development of Bioenergetic Analysis, and you need to be part of that process!

We offer insightful

- keynote presentations,
- interactive workshops,
- networking opportunities,
- members-only meetings,
- exiting party and reception to cap off the days,
- pre-conference sessions to take your knowledge to the next level,
- and much more ...

What we really want to emphasise is that our conference is the ideal places for reconnecting with the members of the IIBA and with all the friends and colleagues.

IIBA Publications

IIBA Clinical Journal

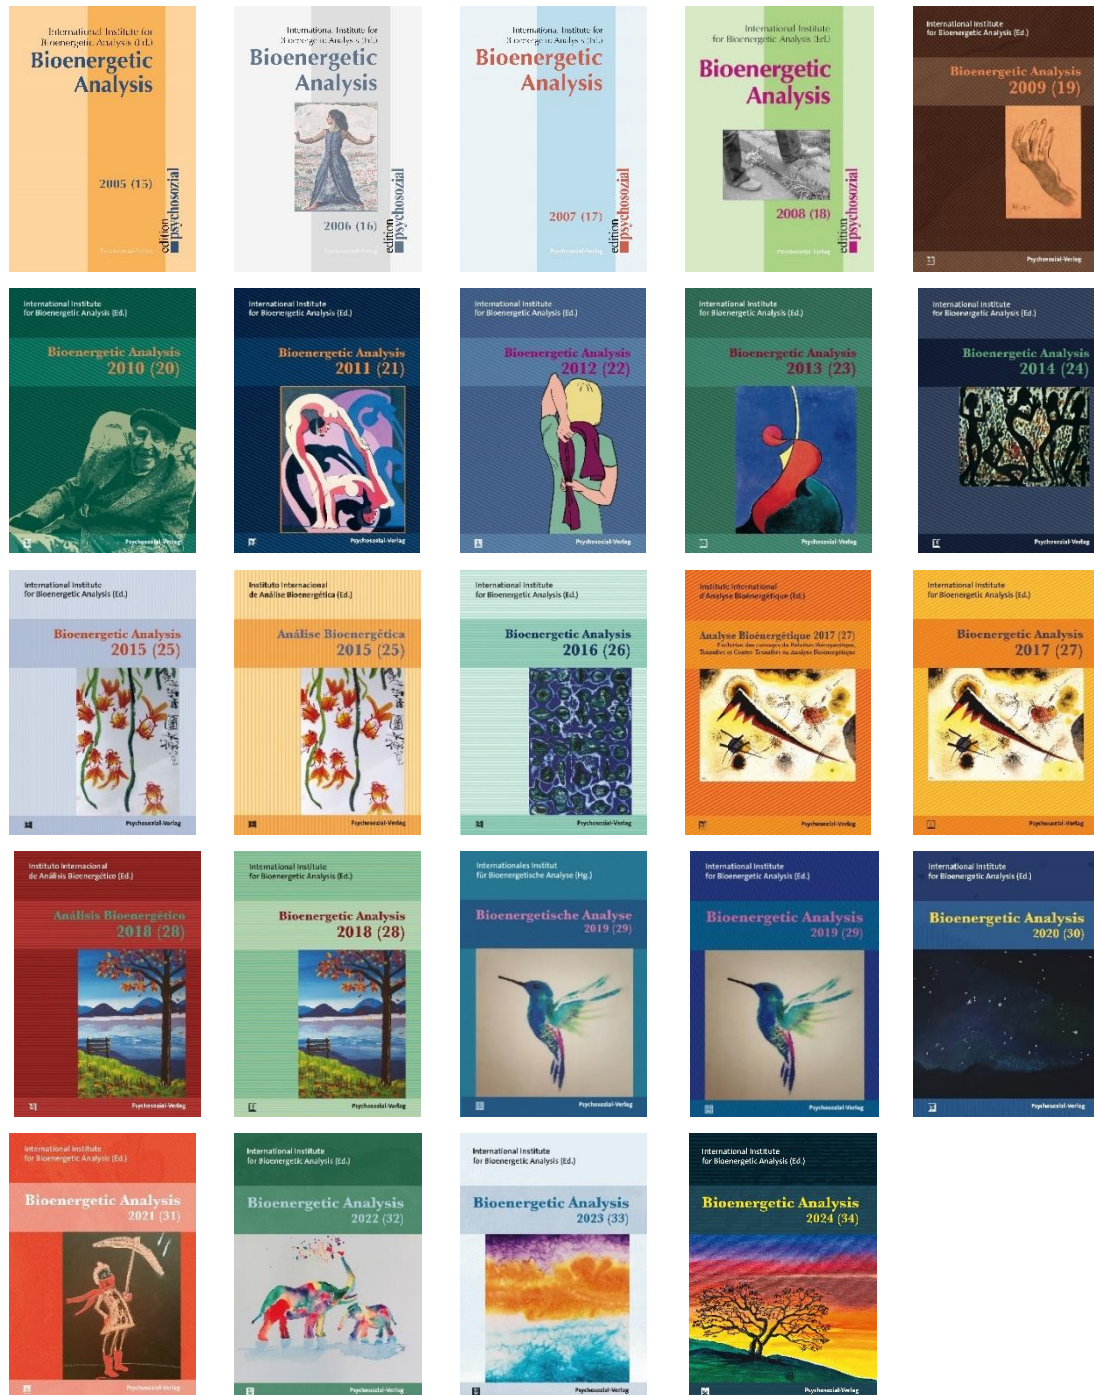

The Clinical journal of the International Institute for Bioenergetic Analysis is published annually. Its purpose is to further elaborate theoretical and scientific concepts and to make links to enhance communication and broaden our connection with other schools of therapy, as well as with academic psychology, medicine, and other psychosomatic schools of thought.

Our e-library allows us to spread the knowledge of Bioenergetic Analysis throughout the world and all its articles can be integrated into professional and scientific databases (through DOI”).

Everybody can now enjoy our e-library free of charge anytime, anywhere, from any PC or online device.

All Clinical Journals (since 2005)

IIBA Handbook

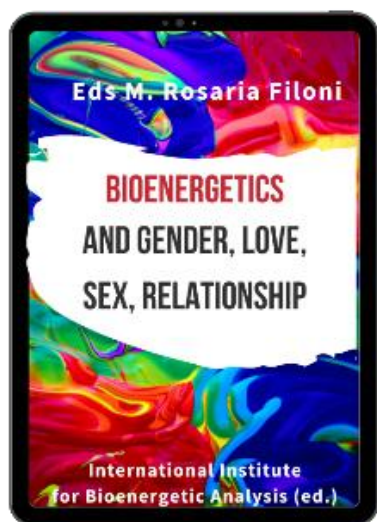

The Handbook Bioenergetic Analysis by Vita Heinrich Clauer is available in

- English (printed | e-book),
- German (printed | e-book),
- French,
- Portuguese (Part I, Part II),
- Italian, and
- Russian.

Available in English, Spanish, Portuguese, Italian & German.

Honoring Alexander Lowen

Alexander Lowen still lives strongly in our memories. Leslie Case said in the memorial event 2009: "Alexander Lowen gave us so much. He lived life on his own terms, he was a simple man, he was a giant in the field of mental health, a mentor and colleague ... He was furious, he was kind, he was radical in his theories, he was conservative in his habits, he was a mortal man, he was someone who's contributions will live after him."

We want to share with you some articles, summarized in the eBook Honoring Alexander Lowen, that furthered Lowen's pioneering work in the field of body psychotherapy and many of the speeches of the memorial

Celebrating Alexander Lowen from April 3-4, 2009 (New York, USA).

PDW Papers about shame

Enhance your library on shame.

The Bioenergetic Therapists who presented their work in the PDW, in October 2018, Salvador – Bahia (Brazil), left us a valuable production of theoretical reflections and practical approaches to our clinic on the subject of shame.

Available in English & Portuguese.

Webinars

The Teaching Committee has organized two series of webinars in recent years, each designed to cater to different levels of expertise in Bioenergetic Analysis.

Series 1: Foundational Concepts (2022)

The first series covers foundational topics, including the history of bioenergetic analysis, our unique therapeutic approach, and an exploration of the five character structures based on Lowen's work. This series also incorporates recent developments in neuroscience to provide a comprehensive understanding of the basics.

Professional Development Workshop (PDW)

The IIBA Professional Development Workshop (PDW) rotates continents in the same manner as the International IIBA Conference. The PDW is held on the years opposite the International IIBA Conference.

There are 3 tracks accommodating all participants from advanced trainees to experienced therapists and trainers.

1 is for newly graduated CBTs and those preparing for graduation. The focus will be to examine your own issues related to the theme and explore the impact on your work as you develop new and creative ways to work with these issues. Supervision of your work with clients is also an option.

2 is for CBTs with four or more years post-certification. The issues explored in this track could come out of supervision sessions done in the group, or content brought in by presenters or the leader(s) of the group. Included in this will be careful attention to the management of transference processes and the nature and effect of counter transference on the therapeutic process.

3 is for Supervisors, Local Faculty and International Faculty applicants, who are interested in experiential learning about supervising and teaching this theme. The workshop will be a process group with a focus on supervision and counter-transference issues in bioenergetics, related to the theme of the workshop. You will explore how to teach the theme, ie creating introductory material, developing relevant experiential exercises and working with transference and counter-transference.

The program includes large group sessions presented by the staff of the workshop or from faculty applicant participants. In the small groups, topics will be processed through personal experience and exercises.

The PDW is a great occasion for all participants to practice and to learn more as they are supervised in their clinical work, to share with colleagues from many different places, to attend theoretical presentations (or present if required), and to be supported and helped in their professional development in a safe, secure and empathetic atmosphere.
